The Garth Newel Chamber Players

For over three decades the Garth Newel Chamber Players have performed to wide acclaim both in America and abroad. Artists-in-residence at the Garth Newel Music Center in Warm Springs, Bath County, they are one of the most active chamber groups in America, performing over fifty concerts a year. They are best known to local music lovers for their weekly performances at the annual summer festival in Warm Springs, as well as for their Spring Music, Fall Foliage, Thanksgiving, and New year's Eve Holiday performances. Their popularity is owing not only to the warmth, precision and insight of their interpretations but also to the pleasant informality with which they engage audiences from the stage.

In addition to performing, the musicians also serve as faculty for the Garth Newel Fellowship Program, work with the music programs of local schools, coach adult and student ensembles, and, each March, host the Garth Newel Chamber Retreat.

The group has recorded two CDs—one containing Mozart's Piano Quartet in G minor (KV 478) and Brahms' Quartet in G minor, Op. 25, the other DvoËak's Piano Quartet in E-flat Major, Op. 87, and Bohuslav Martinç's Piano Quartet No. 1.
