

Evan Berhle came to the University of Virginia from Baltimore, Maryland where he attended Gilman School. Currently a fourth year at the University of Virginia, he is studying politics and has been the Chair of the U.Va. Honor Committee since April of 2013. After graduation, Evan will head to Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar to read for a Masters in political theory.