

Finding Books with Advanced Keyword Search

The Advanced Keyword Search allows you to search the holdings of Preston Library for more complicated topics and more focused results.

1. Begin by choosing the Library Catalog, on the Library home page under "Find Books."

2. Choose the Advanced Keyword button to:

- COMBINE several search terms or concepts
- LIMIT by language or type of material (for example, DVDs)
- Get MORE PRECISE results.

3. Combining Search Terms (left side)

- Combining with AND limits a search:

capital punishment AND DNA

retrieves materials with BOTH of those terms in the catalog record, yielding fewer items.

- Combining with OR broadens a search:

capital punishment OR death penalty

retrieves materials with EITHER term in the catalog record, yielding more items.

4. Limiting (right side)

Use the drop-down menus to limit by

- Location (for example, Reference, DVDs, Recreational Reading, etc.)

- Language

- Date range

- Material type (for example, Books, Music, Video, etc.)

5. The search retrieves 53 items.

The newest materials appear at the top of the list.

6. Click on a title to see full information about the item.

7. The catalog looks within each record for your search terms, which are displayed in red. Examine the subject headings for other relevant search terms.
