

Math Study Abroad

Tuscany, Italy
22 May – 22 June, 2026

* Leave 21 May, arrive 22 May overnight flight

This historic convent, which dates from the 13th century, will be the backdrop for students to live and study for four weeks.

Residence le Santucce

Castiglion Fiorentino

✧ Nestled in the Tuscan countryside, this historic town will be home to the study abroad program for four weeks

Pisa, Florence & Rome

Courses of Study

- ❧ MA331X: History of Math II (3 credits)
 - ❧ Get to know Fibonacci, Galileo, Brunelleschi, daVinci and more
 - ❧ Visits to Museo Galileo, the Leonardo Interactive Museum, and the Museum of Mathematical Instruments
- ❧ MA311: Differential Equations (3 credits)
- ❧ Those who have taken MA311 will take a suitable MA Elective.

Details

Dates:

Depart US on 21 May, 2026 (arrive 22 May) - return to the US on 23 June, 2026

Cost: $5,500 plus airfare

Fees include tuition for two courses, hotel accommodation, breakfasts, train tickets, museum tickets, insurance, and internet (Wi-Fi).

Scholarship deadlines: Watch email for VMI fund announcements
1 November, 2025 is the main one

TO APPLY: Visit CPT Nolan Lipscomb in OGE (old Post Hospital near Crozet)

No uniform!

This program fits well with summer military commitment.
Study abroad GPA is usually much higher.

Passport required!

Eat

Dine

www.vmi.edu/studyabroad