
Record of Service

In the World War

of V.M.I. Alumni and Their Alma Mater

Compiled by the Historiographer of the Virginia Military Institute 1920
CASUALTIES: KILLED, OR DIED IN SERVICE

CASUALTIES:

KILLED IN ACTION, OR DIED IN THE SERVICE.

(List not yet complete.)

First Lieutenant Gall H. Alexander 1899, from Danville, Va. 47th Infantry, 4th Division. Killed in action at Bazoches, near the Vesle River, France, August 7, 1918.

First Lieutenant Thomas D. Amory 1916, from Wilmington, Del. 26th Regular Inf., 1st Div. Killed in action leading assualting platoon ahead of his regiment, near Verdun, October 2, 1918. Awarded, posthumously, the D. S. C., and recommended for the "Medal of Honour." He was incapacitated for duty (walking with a limp from a wound previously received) when he was killed, but he insisted on returning to duty. He was called the bravest and best beloved member of his battalion.

First Lieutenant J. Favre Baldwin 1912, from Tyler, Texas. Surgeon, "Royal Fusiliers." B. E. F. Killed in action in France, August 7, 1918.

Private Archibald W. Benhers 1919, from Ambler, Pa. U. S. Marine Corps. Died, July 3, 1918, of wounds received in action in France, June 7, 1918. (He had received a commission of 2nd Lieutenant in the U. S. M. C. Reserve, but resigned and went into the ranks, in order to get quickly to the front with the regulars. He had been selected for the Officer's Training School in France when he made the Supreme Sacrifice.)

Virginia Military Institute—World War Record

Second Lieutenant Frank Cutchins... 1914, from Richmond, Va. 39th Engineers. Died in the Service in France of pneumonia following influenza, December 25, 1918.

Private Powhatan R. Dance... 1920, from Richmond, Va. U. S. M. C. Killed in action in France, November 1, 1918.

Captain George F. Dashiell... 1919, from Smithfield, Va. M. G. Co., 11th Inf. Killed in action near Soupy, in the Argonne, by bursting of a shell (which also killed other members of his Company). Nov. 10, 1918.

Major A. Wood Dillard... 1913, from Baltimore, Md. Inspector General’s Department. (Late Captain of Infantry, A. E. F.) Accidentally killed at Nashville, Tenn., his Post, January 9, 1919. Previously awarded the D. S. C.

First Lieutenant James H. Drake, Jr. 1911, from Richmond, Va. 24th London Regiment, B. E. F. Died in a London Hospital from the effects of wounds, gas attacks, and extraordinary hardships, during his service at the front since 1916, September 23, 1918.

First Lieutenant James H. Ewell, Jr. 1909, from Gallad, Texas. C. A., U. S. A., A. E. F. First officer commanding a Battery of Anti-Aircraft Artillery. Died of pneumonia while returning to France with troops he had trained for his branch of the Service, at his ship sighted Brest, October 18, 1918.

Captain Jesse H. Fugate, Jr. 1915, from U. S. M. C. Died at his Post at Santiago, D. R., of pneumonia, January 9, 1919. About to be promoted to Major for distinguished service.

Captain Howard F. Gill 1914, from Petersburg, Va. C. A., U. S. A. Died in the Service at Fort Monroe, Va., of pneumonia following influenza, October 14, 1918.

Private T. Sheafe Haskell... 1907, from Derby Line, Vt. Officers’ Training School at Plattsburg, N. Y. Died from effects of an accident while in training, summer of 1917.

Private Peter P. Homes... 1912, from Lunenburg County, Va. Died while a candidate for commission at O. T. School at Camp Lee, Va., Feb. 27, 1918.

Lieutenant Richard J. Howard... 1914, from St. Louis, Mo. “Black Watch” B. E. F. Killed in action in France, March 17, 1918. Awarded the “Victoria Cross” (posthumously).

Captain William H. Humphreys... 1915, from Crozet, Va. 58th Infantry. Killed in action at the Argonne, France, October 4, 1918.

Captain Bartlett James... Va., 1915. U. S. A. Died at his Post, Columbus, N. M., Oct. 24, 1917.

CASUALTIES: KILLED, OR DIED IN SERVICE (Cont'd) 87

Major E. Hammond Johnson, 1904, from Norfolk, Va. 112th Infantry. With Army of Occupation. Died suddenly of apoplexy at his Post in Germany (Cochem), May 17, 1919.

Captain B. V. M. La Rue, 1896, from Kansas City, Mo. 336th Infantry, 89th Division, A. E. F. Died in the Service in France of pneumonia following influenza, 1918.

Captain Atwell T. Lincoln, 1897, from Columbus, Miss., and later, St. Louis, Mo. Co. "B" (M. C. C.), 364th Inf., 89th Division. Killed in action at the St. Mihiel Salient, September 18, 1918.

First Lieutenant Hope W. Massie, 1898, from Tyro, Va. 119th Infantry. Killed while on patrol in France, August 6th, 1918. "You fellows are married, I am the one to go." A comrade wrote: "He had the perfect faith—and died that others might live."

Pharmacist Mate, 2nd Class, 1914, from Nashville, Tenn. U. S. Navy. Died aboard U. S. S. Louisville, just after the ship reached Brest, France, September 29, 1918, of pneumonia following influenza. (Body sent home and interred in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Nashville, Tenn.)

First Lieutenant Alexander McCulloch, 1913, from Lexington, Ky. Infantry, U. S. A. (Previously for two years a Sergeant in the B. E. F.). Died in New York, from effects of wounds received in action and hard service in France with the British Expeditionary Force, June 28, 1918. Awarded the British Distinguished Service Cross by King George, personally, for bringing from the field two wounded comrades when he himself was badly wounded.
Virginia Military Institute—World War Record

First Lieutenant Rodney W. 1906, from York, Pa. 60th Inf., 5th Div. Killed in action in France, October 14th, 1918.

Lieutenant Kiffin Y. Rockwell. 1912, from Asheville, N. C. Aviation Service. B. E. F. Killed in action in France, September 23, 1918. He had been decorated twice.

Private Edward Marcus Smith. 1914, from Valdosta, Ga. Emergency Medical Reserve Corps, U. S. A. Died of pneumonia following influenza while ministering to those stricken with the disease, in Philadelphia, Pa., October 7, 1918. The Dean of the Medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania said: "He died a martyr to duty as fully as the soldier who sacrificed his life on the field of battle."

Captain Hugh Stockell...1897, from Petersburg, Va. Commanding the Richmond M. G. Co. (For Local Defense.) Died of pneumonia following influenza, while earnestly and indefatigably training this Company for possible future National Service, December 25, 1918. (Name of Co. changed to "Hugh Stockell M. G. Co.")

Captain John B. Tomlinson...1917, from Birmingham, Ala. 18th Infantry, 1st Division. Died in the Service at the Hospital at Langres, France, Oct. 11, 1918, from the effects of having been gassed on May 1st and again early in October, 1918, in the Argonne.

First Lieutenant James A. Van Sant. 1918, from Sterling, Ky. 41st Infantry. Died in the Service in France of disease, November 8, 1918.

Casualties:

Captain Edward Will...01.

First Lieutenant Wright ......

WOU:

Captain Fred W Adkins ......

Major George M Alexander ...

1st Lieutenant 'S Allison .......

Major Edward h

1st Lieutenant 'S Amory .......

1st Lieutenant Angle ......
CASUALTIES: KILLED, OR DIED IN SERVICE (Cont’d)—WOUNDED 89

Captain Edward L. Wells... 1907, from Charleston, S. C. 2nd M. G. Battalion, 1st Brigade, 1st Division. Killed in action near Exermont, France, October 4, 1918. Twice promoted for gallantry. Specially commended for conspicuous bravery by both his Brigade and Division Commanders. Awarded, posthumously, both the D. S. C. (twice) and the Croix de Guerre. General Parker, his Brigade Commander, in a letter to the Mayor of Charleston, said the City ought to raise a monument to his memory.

WOUNDED, OR SERIOUSLY GASED, IN ACTION.

(List not complete.)

Captain Fred. W. Adams... 1909, from Kansas City, Mo. 85th Inf., 18th Div. Slightly wounded in action in France, July 20, 1918, but not evacuated from the field. Automatically assumed command of his Company, July 19th, when all other officers became casualties. Awarded the D. S. C. and Croix de Guerre.

Field Clerk Eugene M. Adkins 1920, from Lynchburg, Va. Gassed at Metz, Alsace, — , 1918.

1st Lieutenant Wesley R. Allison 1916, from Rosemont, Pa. Royal Flying Corps. 208th Squadron; later, 65th Squadron. Shot down, wounded, July 4, 1918. Shot down, August 10, 1918 (in Hospital). Machine came apart in air, Dec. 15, 1918, and in Hospital from the fall until April, 1919.

1st Lieutenant Thomas D. Amory 1916, from Wilmington, Del. 26th (Regular) (Infantry). Severely wounded in action at Montdidier, France, May 24, 1918. (Returned to trenches in August, and was killed in action, October 2, 1918.) Awarded the D. S. C. posthumously. Recommended for the "Medal of Honor."

1st Lieutenant James M. Angle 1906, from Pittsburgh, Pa. Required to undergo operation from disease incurred in the Service, Nov. 26, 1918, and long in Hospital.

2d Lieutenant Samuel L. Austin. 1920, from Chicago, Ill. A. S. U. S. A. Injured by an accident with his plane and thus prevented from going overseas.

Private Alden Bell. 1880, from Culpeper, Va. 116th Inf. and 10th Engineers. A. E. F. Twice gassed in action and blinded for four months. (Aged 57 years.)

Captain Stanton L. Bertsche. 1918, from Phoebus, Va. 6th Infantry, 5th Division. A. E. F. Slightly wounded in action in France — —, 1918.

1st Lieutenant Jack W. Bursess. 1918, from Richmond, Va. 371st Infantry. Severely wounded in action in Champagne Sector, France, September 20, 1918. (Wounded four times the same day.)

1st Lieutenant Franklin W. Carter. 1912, from Warrenton, Va. M. G. Co. 155th Infantry. Severely wounded in action in Chateau Thierry Sector, France, July 26, 1918, and in Hospital over a year, permanently disabled. Awarded the D. S. C.

CASUALTIES: WOUNDED (Continued)

Major Philip Coldwell. 1910, from El Paso, Texas. Infantry. Stationed in Philippines till June, 1918. On his return then to U. S., was stationed at Camp Grant and commanded 3rd Regiment (4,000) of Depot Brigade, and for one month commanded the Camp (35,000 men). While there was severely injured by an Army truck and confined in Hospital eight months.

Captain B. Allison Colonna. 1914, from Washington, D. C. A. E. F. Severely wounded —— 1918.

Sergeant Alexander J. Conway. 1909, from Columbus, Ohio. 48th Battalion, Canadian Infantry, B. E. F., and later 2nd Battalion. Slightly wounded, Messines Sector; severely wounded, Ypres Sector; wounded Leoville Sector. Many months in Hospital, but voluntarily returned to the front after receiving two last wounds, against protest of the Surgeon. Served to end of War. Still disabled (February, 1920.) Served nearly four years overseas.

1st Lieutenant George S. Crockett, Jr. 1919, from Acomac, Va. Air Service, A. E. F. Slightly injured when Plane caught fire 2,000 feet up and he side-ellipted to earth; machine destroyed. Commissioned Captain, A. S. R. C., upon discharge.

1st Lieutenant Gilman K. Crockett. 1912, from Bedford City, Va. 9th M. G. Battalion, 3rd Division, A. E. F. Slightly wounded in action near Chateau Thierry, July 18th, and wounded again seriously, Oct. 9, 1918, in Argonne Offensive.

Captain Stuart Cutler. 1918, from New York City. 23rd (Regular) Infantry, A. E. F. Severely gassed in action, April —— 1918. Invaluable home—lungs seriously affected, but after many months in Hospital partially recovered and returned to duty.

Captain Edward T. Davant. 1911, from Roanoke, Va. 315th M. G. Battalion, 80th Division, A. E. F. Severely wounded in action north of Somme-Rance, France, Nov. 1, 1918.

Captain Ralph M. Davenport. 1911, from Denver, Col. Infantry, A. E. F. Slightly wounded in action in France, —— 1918.

Major A. Wood Dillard...1913, from Baltimore, Md. Captain, Regular Infantry, A. E. F. Severely gassed in action, March 12, 1918. (Subsequently accidentally killed.)

Lt. Colonel John W. Downer...1902, from Norfolk, Va. F. A., A. E. F. Wounded, Spring of 1918. Again hit by bullets and severely gassed, while commanding a battalion of Artillery in support of an extensive raid, near Beaumont, France, March 11, 1918. Received D. S. C. and Croix de Guerre for gallantry in this action, and later, Croix de Legion of Honour.

Major Richard B. Dunbar...1908, from Augusta, Ky. 11th Engineers. A. E. F. Slightly gassed in St. Mihiel Offensive.

Captain Charles A. Etheridge...1915, from Norfolk, Va. U. S. M. C. Wounded in action in Chateau Thierry Sector, July 1--18, 1918.

2nd Lieutenant Preston K. Jackson...1917, from Goldsboro, N. C. 69th Infantry, 5th Div., A. E. F. Severely wounded in action in France, September 15, 1918, at Bois de Bon Vaux, St. Mihiel Offensive.

1st Lieutenant John H. Fechheimer...1918, from New York City. 165th Infantry, 42nd Division, A. E. F. Slightly wounded in St. Mihiel Drive, September 29, 1918.

Captain Willis A. Garvey...1916, from Topeka, Kansas. Battery "F," 16th F. A., 2nd Div., A. E. F. While acting as Liaison Officer in the fighting before Rheims, Oct. 3-9, 1918, was slightly wounded, October 7th.

Captain Lester T. Gayle, Jr. 1912, from Portsmouth, Va. 28th Infantry, 1st Division, A. E. F. Transferred to Air Service. Severely injured in line of duty, when his plane fell to the earth. Many months in Hospital, and finally retired from the Service by action of Medical Board, November, 1919, permanently disabled. Appointed Q. M. at V. M. I., 1920.

Captain Gustave R. Garson...1912, from Houston, Texas. Medical Corps, B. E. F. Wounded in action, while serving with the Scotch Highlanders. Decorated for conspicuous gallantry, and transferred to A. E. F., and promoted.

Captain Larkin, W. Glaze- 1918, from Washington, D.C. F.A., A.E.F. brook, Jr. .......................... Wounded in action about July 21, 1918. Later, in St. Mihiel Sector when his horse was killed under him, was seriously hurt, and next day was severely gassed. Removed to Hospital, and, when he found himself alone, escaped, and again went into the battle nearby, and was again gassed. When he was returned to the Hospital he was severely reprimanded and promoted! Invalided home and long in Hospital. (At the first Fort Myer Officers' Training School he stood first among the 400 candidates there, and first among the 140 who passed the final test and were recommended for commissions.

Captain Benjamin A. Goodman 1917, from Norfolk, Va. U.S.M.C. Wounded In action in France. 1918. Ordered home, and assigned to command of S.A.T.C. at V.M.I.

Captain J. Addison Hagan 1916, from Richmond, Va. U.S.M.C., A.E.F. Severely wounded in action, June 11, 1918, at Belleau Wood. After suffering for more than a year, he was retired by a Medical Board, with the rank of Captain.

1st Lieutenant William A. 1918, from Clifton Forge, Va. Infantry, 80th Haley, Jr. ......................... Division, A.E.F. Wounded at ————, 1918.

Captain G. M. Harrison 1907, from Fredericksburg, Va. H.Q. Co. 119th Infantry, 80th Div., A.E.F. Severely wounded in knee in action, October 18, 1918, in the Argonne Offensive, and in Hospital as late as January, 1919. He was the only officer left of his Company, after this terrific drive.

Captain Jack S. Hart 1917, from Weatherford, Texas. U.S.M.C. Wounded in action at Boul de Belleau, June 24, 1918, and severely gassed, and again wounded in action, Sept. 15, 1918, at St. Michel. Twice cited for extraordinary bravery, and received D.S.C., Croix de Guerre and the Naval Cross, and afterwards the MEDAL OF HONOUR.

Captain William H. Humphreys. 1918, from Crozet, Va. 58th Infantry, A. E. F. Severely wounded in action, July 18, 1918, in Chateau Thierry Salient. (Subsequently killed in action.)

Major E. Hammond Johnson. 1904, from Norfolk, Va. 38th Infantry, A. E. F. Wounded in action in the closing days of the War. (Subsequently died in the Service, while with the Army of Occupation.)

Captain Charles Johnston. 1909, from Roanoke, Va. 111th Infantry, 28th Division, A. E. F. Severely wounded in action near Fismois, France, August 12, 1918.

1st Lieut. Catesby A. C. Jones. 1913, from Richmond, Va. 3rd Cavalry, A. E. F. Severely injured by a kick of his horse (skull cracked), while on duty, and many months in Hospital. Later, invalided home, but finally recovered and returned to duty. Received decoration from Belgium.

J. Julian Jordan. 1910, from Hinton, W. Va. After serving his term at O. T. School at Fort Benjamin Harrison, at beginning of War, was severely injured in May, 1918, when en route to join his cavalry command.

Corporal Harry J. Kittrell. 1916, from Mount Pleasant, Tenn. Co. "L." 117th Infantry, 30th Div., A. E. F. Wounded at Estaires, France. (Taken prisoner, but re-captured same day by his own Company.)

Captain B. V. M. La Rue. 1896, from Kansas City, Mo. 28th Infantry, A. E. F. Severely wounded in Meuse-Argonne Offensive. (Died soon afterwards of pneumonia following influenza.)

Private William J. Loth, Jr. 1914, from Waynesboro, Va. British Expeditionary Force. Disabled on Piave River, Italy, and invalided home, after 3 years and 51 days service under the British Flag.

1st Lieutenant Geo Maclean.

Captain Richard J. 1

Captain Horatio P. Jr. 1st Lieutenant W. Melton.

Captain Edward R. Miller.

1st Lieutenant J. Miller, Jr.

Captain Morgan R. I

1st Lieutenant Cha Minton.

Captain Charles Elk.

Major D. G. Morris.

Captain George G. M

2nd Lieutenant Jol Anerney, II.

1st Lieutenant Will McCoy.

2nd Lieutenant Step McGiffert.

CAsualties: Wounded (Continued)

1st Lieutenant S. A. Loughridge .................. 1904, from Lexington, Ky. Severely injured by an explosion in the B. E. F.

1st Lieutenant Charles A. Minton .................. 1909, from New York City. 305th Infantry, 77th Division, A. E. F. Severely gassed in Meuse-Argonne Offensive, early in October, 1918. (Later died in Service.)

Captain Charles Ellet Moore. 1915, from Berryville, Va. 73rd Infantry, A. E. F. Severely wounded at Vaux, July 1, 1918, and still in Hospital, Nov., 1920.

1st Lieutenant William S. McCoy .................. 1909, from Independence, Mo. 355th Infantry, 89th Division, A. E. F. Severely wounded in thigh, Sept 13, 1918, at St. Mihiel, and evacuated from Hospital, December 13, 1918.

2nd Lieutenant Stephen Y. McGiffert .................. 1917, from Duluth, Minn. 318th Infantry, A. E. F. Severely wounded at Meuse-Argonne Offensive, Oct. 4, 1918. Invalided home December, 1918, and many months in Hospital.
Captain John L. McKee .... 1915, from Richmond, Va. 7th Infantry, A. E. F. Disabled when his horse was killed under him in action at Chateau Thierry, June 1918. Invalided home. Oct. 1918. Returned to duty December, 1918.

Private John McKinney .... 1916, from Whitewater, Wis. 9th M. G. Battalion, 3rd Div., A. E. F. Severely wounded in action in Flanders, August 31, 1918, battle of Kimmell Hill.

Major Donald R. McMillen .... 1918, from Whitewater, Wis. 9th M. G. Battalion, 3rd Div., A. E. F. Gassed twice and evacuated to Hospital, and operated on for appendicitis two days later.

Captain Charles P. Nash .... 1917, from Alderson, W. Va. U. S. Marine Corps, A. E. F. Aviation Section. Shot down with his Plane when 2,000 feet above the earth. Lost an arm, and made prisoner of War, September 13, 1918. Awarded D. S. C.

1st Lieutenant John C. 1914, from Franklin, Va. Pilot in Air Service, A. E. F. 2nd Aviation Centre, Tours, France. Severely injured by defective motor in Plane, causing it to drop to the earth. His life was only saved by his belt brace, which caused him to fall clear of his machine when it struck the ground.

2nd Lieutenant George E. 1915, from Washington, D. C. Quartermaster Corps, A. E. F. Knee crushed and right arm broken, while driving an ambulance in an emergency in France, the day before ordered home. Maimed for life. Still in Walter Reed Hospital, Nov., 1926.
CASUALTIES: WOUNDED (Continued)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Rank and Name</th>
<th>Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1st Lieutenant Reid M. Pierce</td>
<td>1908, from Lynchburg, Va. Infantry, A. E. F. Slightly wounded in action at ———, France, 1918.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Private Klifft Y. Rockwell</td>
<td>1912, from Asheville, N. C. French Foreign Legion. Severely wounded at Arras, France, May 8, 1915. (Subsequently killed in Air Service.)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2nd Lieutenant Frank E. Schlegel</td>
<td>1917, from Norfolk, Va. 60th Infantry, 5th Division, A. E. F. Slightly wounded at ———, France, ———, 1918.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Captain Lemuel C. Shepherd, Jr.</td>
<td>1917, from Norfolk, Va. U. S. Marine Corps, A. E. F. Wounded in neck in action at Chateau Thierry, June 3, again wounded severely in hip at Bois de Beauce, June 7, 1918, having fought four days with bullet in his neck, declining medical treatment for the first wound. Severely wounded the third time at Mont Blanc Ridge, Oct. 8. Two decorations.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1st Lieutenant Alan M. Smith</td>
<td>1912, from Birmingham, Ala. 167th Infantry, A. E. F. Severely wounded in action in Chateau Thierry Salient July 26, 1918.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2nd Lieutenant William G. Speed, Jr.</td>
<td>1918, from Baltimore, Md. Air Service, U. S. A. Married for life in aeroplane crash, while instructing students. In Hospital six months. Right leg permanently injured.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Captain James Taylor. 1918, from Orange, N. J. 301st Battalion, Tank Corps, E. E. F. Wounded in action at Montrabben, (Sommme), October 23, 1918.

John A. Thomas. 1918, from Scranton, Pa. While serving the Government as Chemist severely injured by poisonous gases, and not recovered after many months in Hospital.

1st Lieutenant James D. Twitty. 1903, from Suffolk, Va. A. E. F. Severely gassed and in Hospital many months.

Colonel Edmund C. Waddell. 1903, from Richmond, Va. While commanding Battalion of Infantry in the Chateau Therry Sector, June 25, 1918, "during a heavy gas attack, disregarding his own danger, he refused to be evacuated until he was so badly gassed that his face was black." Awarded D. S. C.

2nd Lieutenant Harry H. Webb. 1919, from Santa Barbara, California. Air Service, A. E. F. Lost hand in line of duty in an explosion at Issoudun, France, result of an accident, May 10, 1918.

Captain Thomas S. Whitting. 1917, from Hampton, Va. U. S. Marine Corps, A. E. F. Received five (or more) severe wounds and many smaller ones in action at Chateau Therry, June 2, 1918. Decorated.

Major Frederick J. Williams. 1916, from Ridgewood N. J. Many months in Hospital, Trier, Germany, and in U. S. from effects of being gassed. Subsequently died at his Post at Camp Slotzenberg, P. L., from injury recd. while playing Polo.

Lt. Colonel Jennings C. Wise. 1902, from Richmond, Va. While Major of 318th Infantry, 80th Div., A. E. F., he was slightly wounded in action in the Meuse-Argonne Offensive, Oct. 4, 1918.

1st Lieutenant Austin W. Woolford. 1917, from Suffolk, Va. 90th Inf., 77th Div., A. E. F. Lost left arm in action, Oct. 4, 1918, in Meuse-Argonne Offensive. (Three wound stripes.)

PRISONERS OF WAR.

CAPTAIN CHARLES F. NASH... 1917, from Alderson, W. Va. U. S. Marine Corps, A. E. F. Pilot in Aviation Squadron. While patrolling in Germany, September 15, 1918, lost his way, owing to weather conditions, was shot down and made prisoner, losing an arm. Was released after the Armistice. (See “Wounded.”)

FIRST LIEUTENANT JOHN C. NELSON, JR. 1918, from Norfolk, Va. 119th Infantry, 30th Division, A. E. F. Made prisoner at Bellecourt, September 29, 1918. Released immediately after the Armistice.

FIRST LIEUTENANT R. BARNWELL RHEATT 1916, from Charleston, S. C. British Expeditionary Force. He was made a prisoner, March 28, 1918, while serving as Medical Officer of the Queen’s Westminster Regiment, 58th Division. He was never wounded, but was slightly gassed, though he did not report sick. After the Armistice he was released by the Enemy. The British Government decorated him with the “Military Cross” for his splendid work on the battlefield, March 28, 1918, the day he was captured.

CORPORAL HARRY J. KITRELL... 1916, from Mount Pleasant, Tenn. 117th Infantry, 50th Division. Wounded at Estrees, France. Captured, September 29, 1918, at Bellecourt, France, but recaptured same day by his own Company.