1. Mr. Boland presided and called the meeting to order. Lieutenant Colonel Sean P. Harrington, Secretary to the Board of Visitors, recorded the minutes. Also present was Ms. Cynthia Norwood, legal counsel, Office of the Attorney General. Mr. Boland began the meeting with a moment of silence honoring the lives of Mr. Bruce Gottwald and Mrs. Peggy Hall. He thanked General and Mrs. Peay for their hospitality the evening prior at the Board reception. He reminded the Board of the 19 February 2020 VMI Legislative Reception in Richmond, Virginia. Mr. Boland commented that VMI ranked in the top ten in the recent Georgetown Study on “return on investment” and he congratulated General Peay and the staff for their continued success.

2. General J. H. Binford Peay III ’62, VMI Superintendent addressed the Board. He thanked the Board for their support and provided a brief overview of the morning agenda and a Look Back review of the previous semester. A copy of the slides is appended to these minutes as Appendix I.

a. General Peay discussed the ongoing legislative challenges going on in Richmond and stated that there could be several changes coming out of this current session. General Peay and Brigadier General Clark provided an overview of the 2020 General Assembly Session and Master Planning and the Operational Requests and Capital Outlay Priorities. Brigadier General Clark discussed the results of the November election and shifting of party control in both houses of the legislature, as well as the naming of numerous new committee chairs. There are approximately 200 bills being tracked on the VMI Tracking Report which potentially impacts the Institute.

b. Brigadier General Clark discussed the Capital Projects funding and Governor’s proposed budget. Safety and Security (Construction Phase Funding--$9.8M) and Engineering and Laboratory Building (Construction Phase Funding--$51M) are currently funded projects in the Governor’s budget.

c. General Peay discussed the Master Planning themes and concepts which included 1) Concentric Circles and Cadet Daily Schedule, 2) Security and Vehicle Traffic, 3) History and Preservation, 4) Energy and Sustainability, 5) Green Space, and 6) Beautification and Disciplined Appearance. General Peay covered some of the projects in planning, as well as the funded projects currently underway or approved for construction.

a. BG Clark reviewed the major elements to include enrollment projections, tuition and fees, education and general programs (E&G), the auxiliary enterprises program, the unique military activities program, and capital funds. The projected enrollment for the class of ’24 is 500 cadets (300 in-state/200 out-of-state), with a total projected census date enrollment of 1,693 cadets. The tuition and fees projection is $29,252 for Virginia residents (1.3% increase) and $57,262 for non-residents (2.8% increase). The proposed increases are within the parameters included in VMI’s Six-Year Plan submitted to the state in June 2019. BG Clark also provided the Board with a tuition and fees comparison of selected institutions across the Commonwealth.

b. BG Clark covered the Governor’s Proposed Budget and the FY21-FY22 priorities. The proposal retains the new FY20 increased Unique Military Activities (UMA) funding of $1.4M for a total FY21 UMA funding of $5.6M. The Governor’s proposal includes a 0% employee salary increase. Health insurance premiums increase by 2.4% in FY21 and 6.7% in FY22. The proposal increases state general funds for student financial assistance by $13,400 for a total FY21 amount of $1,131,618.

Notice had been given which invited public comment during this morning session. Mr. Boland inquired whether there was anyone desiring to make comments to the Board. There was no one present wishing to do so, therefore he closed the public comment period.

11. A motion was made by Mr. Collins, seconded by Mr. Hines, to approve the minutes of the 10-11 September 2019 meeting of the Board of Visitors. The motion passed unanimously.

12. A motion to approve the Board of Visitors Resolution for the following individuals was made by Mr. Collins, seconded by Mr. Hines: Colonel Stewart MacInnis, Colonel Daniel Pharr, Captain Brian Quisenberry ’81, and Colonel David Williams. The motion passed unanimously. The resolutions are filed with the minutes of this meeting as Appendix II.

13. First Class President Cadet Samuel Trepp ’20, Regimental Commander Cadet Austin Stansberry ’20, and Honor Court President Cadet Skyler Birdie ’20 were introduced and made brief statements to the Board regarding their particular areas within the Corps of Cadets.

a. Cadet Trepp thanked the Board for their kind hospitality at the BOV dinner the evening prior, and for their continued support. He provided the Board with a brief update on the successful ratline to date and the achievements made by the class over the past semester. He specifically commented on the recent fundraising event by the Rats to raise money for the Rockbridge Area Relief Association. He commented the class system remains strong and that second class has started the process of selecting their leadership for the next academic year.

b. Cadet Birdie provided the Board with an update on the Honor Court cases for the current year. As he mentioned in the fall, education remains a top priority. Main focus this past semester was providing education sessions for members of the coaching staff and athletes in the Corps with regards to status. Additionally, transparency of HC operations and processes for the Corps has been an emphasis item for the Court. He closed his remarks by stating the Honor Court met with General Peay this past week to discuss various cases and the way forward with the Court.

c. Cadet Stansberry provided the Board with an update on the regimental system. He provided an update with regards to the professionalism and improved image of the Corps which was a goal for his leadership team this year. Focus was given to adding historical perspective and context to ratline training in an effort to providing new cadets with a greater appreciation of the Institute. He stated that the Citadel and WestPoint trips were very successful and that he was very proud of the Corps professionalism throughout both football games. He emphasized that his leadership team is committed to remaining engaged through the entirety of the academic year and carrying forward a positive legacy for the upcoming leadership teams.

14. The Board received remarks from the President of the VMI Association, Mr. Asa Page III ’79, and the Chief Executive Officer of the VMI Alumni Agencies, Mr. Steve Maconi. Mr. Maconi briefed the Board on the evolution of the combined agencies which focused on increased donor engagement, effectiveness in strategic travel, the athletic scholarship budgeting process, alumni engagement initiatives and a comprehensive communications strategy. He provided the Board with an update with the VMI Investment Holdings which totaled $547M at the end of 2019. Mr. Maconi concluded his remarks by discussing the VMIAA fundraising and engagement efforts. The goal remains to achieve a $1B endowment by 2039, as well as a scholarship for every cadet, a fully funded athletic scholarship program, endowed chairs in every academic department, $10M in annual giving, and a minimum of 50% alumni fundraising participation.

15. Mr. Fain, Chair of Academic Affairs, reported on the meeting of his Committee.

The S2 Staff continues to push the cadet peer tutoring program, and reported that the Corps average GPA is a 2.705. The S3 Staff provided an overview of the training and operations programs for the semester. The S4 Staff briefed the logistics plan for Breakout, their support for numerous Corps activities, and their continuity plans to support the next academic year. The S5 Staff briefed on the fall 2019 public relations initiatives which included supporting three Open House events, new cadet recruiting initiatives, parade filming and holiday suppers. The S6 Staff provided an update on the athletics and fitness programs from the fall, as well as statistics from the VMI Fitness test. The S7 Staff concluded with a briefing on their morale, welfare, and recreation initiatives which included numerous activities supporting the Corps.

   c. LTG Strock reported that the ROTC and commissioning programs remain strong. In FY19 the Institute commissioned 184 officers, and the projections for FY20 have increased to 224. Additionally, he covered the activities and programs being covered by each of the ROTC departments.

   d. LTG Strock commented on the cadet attrition report and provided some statistics from the yearly comparison chart for first year cadets. General Peay commented that the attrition report is managed daily by the VMI leadership team, and that the reasons why a cadet chooses to leave VMI is monitored and tracked closely to identify any trends or potential issues. General Peay commented that the attrition rate has remained consistent with the prior year figures.

20. Mr. Scott, Chair of External Relations, reported on the meeting of his Committee.

   a. The Committee approved their minutes from the 10 September 2019 meeting.

   b. Mr. Scott informed the Board that Colonel MacInnis is retiring and that Mr. Bill Wyatt, currently director of communications for James Madison University, will assume leadership of the Office of Communications and Marketing in a few weeks. Mr. Scott expressed the appreciation of the Institute for Colonel MacInnis’ service to VMI.

c. Mr. Scott reported that his committee discussed the political developments in the General Assembly and noted that the VMI government relations team has had success in building relationships with new legislative leaders. He also reviewed key dates in the legislative session, which is scheduled to end March 7 and is to return for a one-day reconvened session on April 22.

d. Mr. Scott reported that a new City Manager has been appointed in Lexington, and he has met with General Peay and has toured VMI. Mr. Scott commented that VMI representatives have attended public meetings held by Lexington to develop a master plan for Jordan’s Point.

e. The Committee members expressed an interest in VMI determining the economic impact of the Institute on the locality and taking an active stance in communicating not only the economic contributions of VMI to the local area, but also the impact cadets, faculty, and staff have in terms of their individual and group support to local organizations.

f. Mr. Scott reported that there has been a decline in attendance at the VMI Museum and at the Stonewall Jackson House over the past year which can be attributed to the ongoing construction activities. Attendance at the New Market Battlefield State Historical Park has increased during the year. Additionally, there are several maintenance and upgrading projects that are being completed at New Market over the months ahead.

21. LTG Dominy, Chair of the Nominating and Governance Committee requested that the report on the meeting of his Committee be reserved for Closed Session. Mr. Boland agreed and briefed the Board that he would be covering the Nominating and Governance report for this meeting.
